The rocket is on its launch pad ready for take off!

Skip count from the starting number on the rocket to the planet using the instruction shown on the launch pad. Colour the stars to show the path to the planet. Write the final following number on the planet.

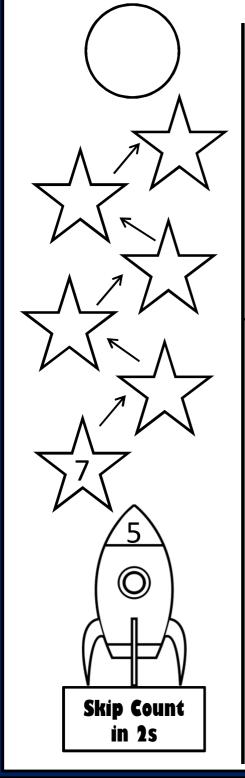

The rocket is on its launch pad ready for take off!

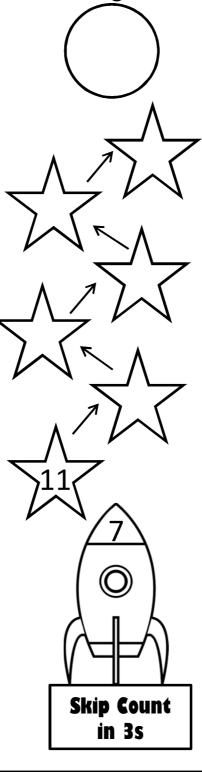

Skip count from the starting number on the rocket to the planet using the instruction shown on the launch pad. Colour the stars to show the path to the planet. Write the final following number on the planet.

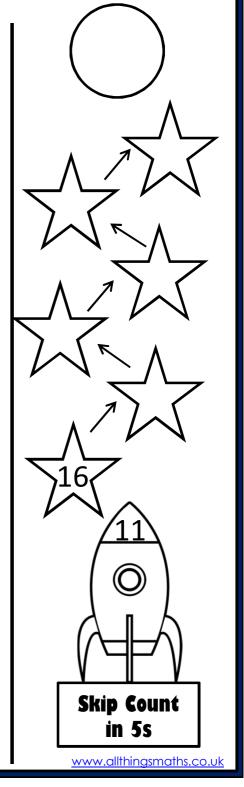

The rocket is on its launch pad ready for take off!

Skip count from the starting number on the rocket to the planet using the instruction shown on the launch pad. Write your numbers in the stars to show the path to the planet. Write the final following number on the planet.

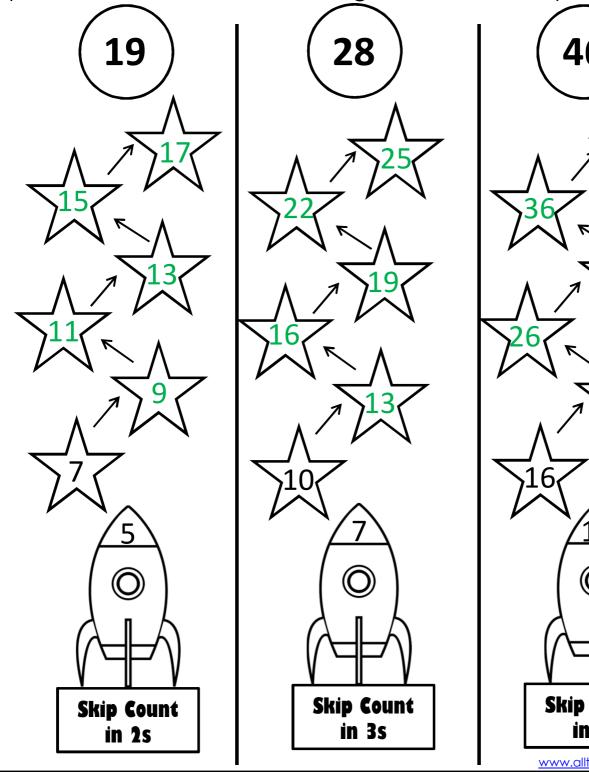

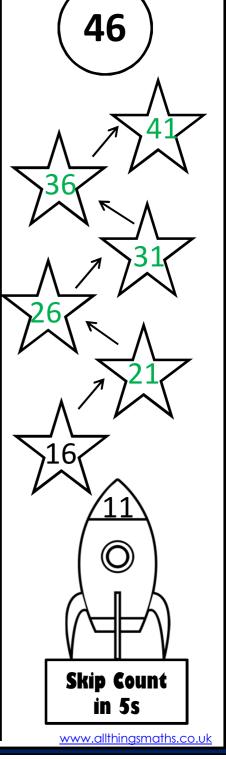

The rocket is on its launch pad ready for take off!

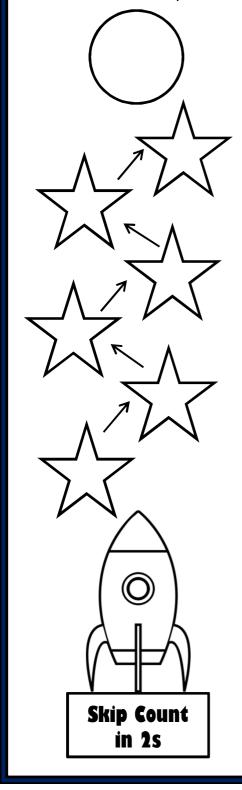

Skip count from the starting number on the rocket to the planet using the instruction shown on the launch pad. Write your numbers in the stars to show the path to the planet. Write the final following number on the planet.

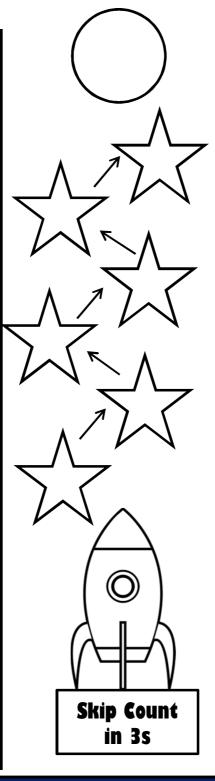

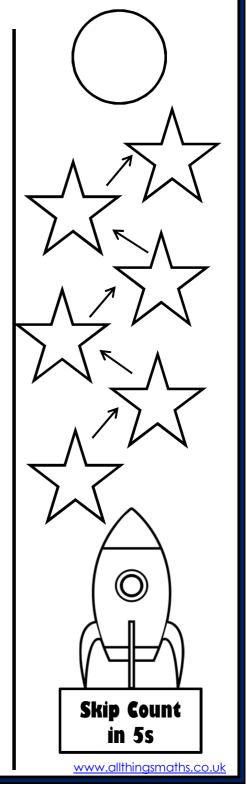

The rocket is on its launch pad ready for take off!

Skip count from the starting number on the rocket to the planet using the instruction shown on the launch pad. Write your own starting number at the top of the rocket and then numbers in the stars to show the path to the planet. Write the final following number on the planet.

Skip counting

The rocket is on its launch pad ready for take off! Skip count from the starting number on the rocket to the planet using the instruction shown on the launch pad.

First, choose the instruction to skip count in 2s, 3s, 5s or 10s. Next, write your own starting number at the top of the rocket and then numbers in the stars to show the path to the planet. Write the final following number on the planet.

